State of Washington

Military Benefits Fact Sheet

Summary: Washington offers special benefits for its military service members and veterans including property tax exemptions, state employment preferences, education and tuition assistance, vehicle tags, as well as hunting and fishing license privileges. Eligibility for some benefits may depend on residency, military component and veteran disability status.

State Benefit Highlights and Eligibility

State Taxes:

State Tax Advantage: None

Property Tax Exemption: The Senior Citizen and Disabled Person Property Tax Exemption Program freezes the value of your residence, exempts all excess levies, and may exempt a portion of regular levies. This results in: 1) freezing the value of your residence as of January 1, 1995, or January 1 of the initial application year, whichever is later; 2) providing you with a reduction in your property taxes. The assessor will continue to establish the market value of the property; however, you will only be billed for the taxes on the frozen value.

Eligibility: Must be a veteran with a 100 percent service connected disability. Your application must include proof of your age or disability. http://dor.wa.gov/Docs/Pubs/Prop_Tax/SeniorExempt.pdf

Education Benefits:

Loan Forgiveness Program: The state of Washington will forgive education loans for recipients who complete contracted term of service in the Washington National Guard.

Eligibility: Honorable Discharge from National Guard

Tuition Assistance: Washington tuition may be waived on all or a portion of tuition and fees on a space available basis.

Eligibility: Member of National Guard.

Employment Benefits:

Employment Assistance: State employee receives 15 days military leave per year.

Eligibility: State employee on orders for Annual Drill.

Employment Preference: Veterans may receive preferential scoring criteria status in competitive examinations for public employment.

Eligibility: Must be a veteran with Honorable Discharge.

Reemployment and Layoff Rights: Veterans are protected by State laws pertaining to returning veterans. There is a 90-day limit after date of discharge. Please call the US Department of Labor – VETS, 1-866-487-2365 or Employer Support of the Guard and Reserve, 1-800-336-4590.

Eligibility: Army Reserve or National Guard service members who were activated either for Federal or State service.

Military Retirement Credit: Washington State Department of Retirement Systems offers military retirement credit to qualified public employees. 1-800-547-6657

Eligibility: Military Retiree; <http://www.drs.wa.gov/Member/Publications/Military/wsprsMillInterruptive.htm>

Special Vehicle License Plates:

Special Vehicle License Plates: Washington State Department of Licensing offers six Armed Forces License Plates for honorably discharged veterans, active duty military, Reservists, and National Guard. In addition, it offers several distinctive license plates for veterans, to include Former Prisoners of War, Medal of Honor, Purple Heart and Pearl Harbor Survivors as well as free license plates for 100% service connected disability. All services have a plate offered for a fee too include the National Guard.

Eligibility: Service member must provide DD214 when applying for special plates. Veterans rated at 100% disabled must present VA documentation as proof of disability.

Former Prisoners of War: A qualified prisoner of war may receive an exemption from license fees on one vehicle each year. Special plates are available with a permanent registration to qualified recipients.

Eligibility: Those who qualify for free licensing: have received an honorable discharge - or received a discharge for physical reasons with an honorable record, have been captured or incarcerated for more than 29 days by an enemy of the United States during a period of war with the United States, or are the surviving spouse of a deceased former prisoner of war. A surviving spouse of a former prisoner of war may be issued a regular or special license plate even if the deceased had not been issued a plate.

Disabled Veteran: Certain disabled American veterans may be exempt from license fees on one vehicle each per year. A permanent registration is issued with these special plates.

Eligibility: Applicants need to have served in any branch of the armed forces of the United States, Reserves, or National Guard, and received: an honorable discharge - or - received a discharge for physical reasons with an honorable record, and A 100% service connected disability rating from the Veteran's Administration or the military service from which the veteran was discharged.

Medal of Honor: Washington residents who have received the Congressional Medal of Honor may receive a license plate representing that award. You must submit proof from the Department of Veteran Affairs that you have received the Congressional Medal of Honor.

Eligibility: Obtain letter of eligibility from Dept. of Veteran's Administration verifying that you have received the Congressional Medal of Honor. Complete a Military License Plate Application Mail the completed application with letter of eligibility to:
